TRANSPORTATION.

EUROPEAN IMMIGRATION

TO THE

CANADAS & WESTERN STATES!

—BY—

Train & Co's Line.

ENOCH TRAIN & CO., Proprietors of the Boston and the Liverpool Line of Packets, hereby give notice that they have made extensive arrangements with the Western Rail Road Corporations, in connection with the Rail Roads in the Western States, and Steamboats on the Lakes, for the forwarding of pre-paid passage from Boston to the Canadas and Western States; and are now selling at their office in Boston, and at their authorized agencies, pre-paid certificates of passage as follows:

From Liverpool to Boston:

"	Albany, N. Y.,	$18 00

"	Detroit, Mich.,	24 00
"	Cincinnati, O.,	24 50
"	Chicago, Ill.,	22 00
"	St. Louis, Mo.,	25 00
"	Milwaukee, Wis.,	22 00

Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months, thirteen dollars less than the above named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Splendid Line of Packets; provisions a sufficient supply for the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each adult passenger, of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two lbs. of Pea's; 5 lbs. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2½ lbs. navy bread; 1 lb. wheat flour; 2 lbs rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants) are furnished with half the pounds of Pea's per week; the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

[As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of the several passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid certificates, either directly or through our agents.

On the arrival of any of our ships in the outer harbor, we immediately dispatch an agent on board, to give pre-paid passengers the necessary instructions regarding their route westward.

Bedding and utensils for eating and drinking, must be provided by passengers; and those going to the Canadas, or Western States, must furnish their own provisions from Boston.

TRAIN & CO, of Boston, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of immigrants, that as owners of the only LIVERPOOL and BOSTON LINE of PACKETS, they have determined that their Immigration business shall be conducted in their own name; on their own responsibility, and by themselves or their immediate servants.

In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we believe it but its general reputation as the fast sailing Packet Lines is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American Immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the rapid and successful passages made by these Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort and Safety which their Passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of these Ships are recognized as regulars which have gained the very highest characters, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

Packet Ships which are dispatched in this LINE:

STAR OF EMPIRE,	Capt. BROWN,
WESTERN STAR,	THAYER,
FRANK PIERCE,	MARSH,
PRESIDENT,	CHADWICK,
CHARIOT OF FAME,	KNOWLES,
STAFFORDSHIRE,	RICHARDSON,
ORIENTAL,	SAMPSON,
NORTH AMERICA,	DUNBAR,
DANIEL WEBSTER,	HOWARD,
PLYMOUTH ROCK,	CALDWELL,
HENRY CLAY,	PETTIT,
LEVI WOODBURY,	NICHOLSON.

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

OFFICES:

Enoch Train & Co., Nos. 37 and 38 Lewis Wharf, Boston, Massachusetts.

Train & Co., Merchants, No. 8 India Buildings, Water St., Liverpool, Eng.

Train & Co., Passage Office, Nos. 115 & 116, Waterloo Road, Liverpool, Eng.

Train & Co., No. 31 St. Patrick Street, Cork, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are ALL AMERICAN BUILT and constructed expressly for Packets. They are all new, and of the FIRST Class, being built on the most improved principles and of the best materials. They possess all the modern improvements which conduce to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence.

The Passengers will be carefully selected as first-rate sailors and men of humanity, and as little spirits as can be is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and most popular conveyance to America. As Train & Co. have made arrangements with the Liverpool as will PROTECT their friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practised there, they believe that those who pre-pay passages cannot meet with the advantage of being at once placed in their Spacious Houses, in favorable terms, for a well known Line of Magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which they so often experience, when they engage with Agents who are not slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles unfriendly to speculation, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfillment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the very Rev. THEOBALD MATHEW, Cork Ireland.

We publish in the following testimonial from the Right Reverend JOHN BERNARD FITZPATRICK, D. D., Bishop, Cathedral, Boston.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 18, 1854

NOTICE TO BUSINESS MEN.

The circulation of the DAILY SENTINEL is by far the LARGEST of any daily paper published in the State, and therefore greater advantages to Merchants, Mechanics and Artizans, as a medium of Advertising.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over TWO THOUSAND copies, which is constantly and rapidly increasing. Advertisements put in the Weekly at the same rates as in the Daily.

To our Merchants.

In order that we may lay before our Country readers as much as possible of the matter of our daily issue, we shall be obliged to publish a Supplement to our Weekly on Tuesday next. The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of nearly 2500 and is increasing at the rate of 50 to 75 per week. It goes to nearly 300 post-offices in this state, besides a large number in adjoining states and in the East, furnishing an invaluable advertising medium. At the opening of the season, it may be an object to our merchants to send remembrances to their customers in the interior, and our supplement will give them an opportunity of doing so. Those who desire to avail themselves of it, will oblige by giving directions at our counting room to-day or Monday morning.

Uniform and Just Taxation.

Our Madison correspondent makes out a very good argument against the policy of a tax law which shall require the citizens to furnish the assessor with a sworn list of their property; but a single word of fact and practice is worth more than a volume of theory in such a case; and it cannot be, as several states of the Union have for some time been collecting their taxes under laws framed after the principle involved, and that without meeting the troubles which our correspondent sees in the way, it is fair to suppose that they do not exist. We believe that such a law would reach a vast amount of property which the present one does not reach, and that our assessment lists would increase by 100 to 150 per ct. at once, and the proportional tax diminish accordingly.

THE FUGITIVE CASE.—Some one, who subscribes himself "Justice," expresses his disapprobation of the course of the Sentinel in the late slave case, through the columns of the News. Inasmuch as the writer seems, from the sentence which he ascribes to the Sentinel, not to have read our paper, his article is of no particular consequence.

Another, who signs his communication to the same paper "a Merchant," thinks himself "greatly disgusted with the miserable twaddle of the Sentinel"(!)—and speaks of us as "doing all in our power to instigate and encourage rioters to break open jails, and violate a law of the U. S."

Our greatly disgusted friend, who takes so much interest in our welfare as to give the 3 or 400 readers of the News a statement which the 3000 readers of the Sentinel know to be false, may as well excuse himself that way as any. When he rises to the dignity of a civil criticism upon anything which we have said or done, his communications may be worth noticing.

THE PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW.—From the proceedings in the Legislature on Wednesday, we find to suppose the Liquor Bill to be a gone case for the session. The minority of the committee of confidence on the disagreeing veto of the two houses reported in favor of the Senate's maintaining its amendment, submitting the question to the people; and the Senate adopted the report, by the following vote:

Ayes—Allen, Blair, Cary, Dunn, Eldridge, Ellsworth, Hunter, Mantz, McGarry, McLane, Reynolds, Smith—12.

Nays—Adams, Bashford, Dewey, Grant, Harvey, Law, Sterling, Wakely, West—9.

Absent—Brown, Miller, Vittum, Whittlesey.

The majority of the committee reported in favor of the Senate's receding, which, as is seen above, that body refuses to do. So the bill will probably fall between the two Houses, unless there should be some future action upon the Senate bill, now on the Assembly's files, which is almost identical with the other and would very likely, meet with the same fate.

☞ The Watertown Chronicle under its new proprietors, we are glad to learn is prospering, and increasing its subscriptions largely. It says in a late article:

"A few of the 'pioneer' subscribers of the Chronicle have left us, for the reason, as they say, they are not able to take the N. Y. Tribune, or the Milwaukee Sentinel, and the Chronicle also. We part with such subscribers up with reluctance, and always with the hope that they will be almost lost without it, and will return soon for the Chronicle again."

While we are duly thankful for the very large increase of our weekly circulation within the last six months—our issue being nearly doubled—we regret that any one should feel obliged to neglect his own county paper, in order to take the Sentinel. And with the present prices received by farmers for their produce, we think that the number must be very small who cannot well afford to take both papers. But, good farmers of the interior, see that your county paper is well supported, at all events.

CRYSTAL PALACE.—P. T. BARNUM has been unanimously elected President of the Crystal Palace Association, much to the satisfaction of those who are large holders of the stock.—Immediately after the result of the election became known in Wall st., the stock advanced.—With the shrewdness, energy and tact for which Mr. Barnum is distinguished, there is some probability that the affairs of the Association may be brought right side up.

LAND AND LAW AGENCY.—Messrs RICHARDSON VAN SLYKE, & WHITE, of Madison, the first two of whom are well and very favorably known through the transaction of a large business for our citizens at the seat of government of the state, have renewed their card in our paper, and we call attention to it. Mr. WHITE, the new member of the firm, is a Bostonian, who has lately taken up his residence at Madison.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The News calls the report of the New Hampshire Election "a triumph for the Nebraska bill."

It would not take many more such triumphs as that to kill the bill, and we hope it will have many such.

GOOD ADVICE.—The New Orleans Crescent closes an unlicensed article against Douglas's Nebraska Bill with the following pertinent paragraph:

Hark ye, gentlemen of the South! When you have stronger you got the old Compromise; now, when you are weaker, you had better stick to it.—Nay, stick to all the Compromises; for be assured that the next agitation—that is to say, this, if you undertake into it—will, to all human probability, be the last. There'll never be another Compromise; rely on that easy prophecy.

VESSELS AT RACINE.—The Advocate gives an account of the preparations making among the vessels at Racine for the season's business. Six vessels are on the stocks, five of them new, and three nearly ready for launching.

WASHINGTON vs. NEBRASKA FRAUD.—"I can only say, that there is not a man living, who wishes more sincerely than I do to see a plan devised for the abolition of it (Slavery;) but there is only one proper and effectual mode by which it can be accomplished, and that is by legislative authority; and this, so far as my suffrage will go, shall never be wanting."—Letter of Washington to Robt. Morris, April 12th, 1786.

"I never mean, unless some particular circumstance should compel me to it, to possess another slave by purchase, it being among my first wishes to see some plan adopted by which Slavery in this country may be abolished."—Letter to John F. Mercer, Sept. 9th, 1786.

MEN AND THINGS IN GOTHAM.—No. 10.

New York, March 7, '54.

Messrs. Editors:

Perhaps the 22d of February is rather a fossiliferous event to excavate from the cave of oblivion at this late hour, but as it was a jolly day and came to pass since my last, I must make a "mere mention" of it, and that briefly. The great "Birthday" was never celebrated so extensively before. From morning till midnight it was a grand excitement; it seemed as if the 4th of July and New Year's day had joined hands and capital for a great display. Mustering bands of the "O. U. A." marched from all quarters of the city to a central rendezvous. Squads of policemen arm in arm were everywhere constantly on the tramp, the gay uniforms and martial strains of many a goodly millitary company smote pleasantly on the eye, and strains of music which might have led men on to victory, filled the air and ear with stirring melody.

The snow was deep, and the sleighs were out in all their glory, decorated with flags even to the horses' heads, which tossed the stars and stripes as proudly as if they felt the day was a glorious one even for them. The Baltimore Fireman and their New York friends rode thro' the city, and were cheered on their route in the most friendly manner. The great procession was most imposing, the crowd was vast and enthusiastic. The O. U. A.'s were determined to display their strength and create a lasting and perhaps a useful impression, and that they did so, was so plain that he who ran could read it. Large and respectable bodies of foreigners, Italians, Germans, &c. have recently paraded the streets, their bands playing the "Marseilles" and other foreign patriotic airs with fine effect. These societies are organized for the giving of counsel and of practicable direct aid to their oppressed brethren abroad. I notice that your eccentric fellow citizen Mr. Ryan has been gaining fresh laurels by his eulogy on the immortal Washington. I have, no doubt that he was up to his great subject and did it as full justice as man could do so great a one. It has always struck me as a little singular that those who most admire and declaim publicly on the merits of the great man are as diametrically opposed to him in those principles which governed his whole life and actions as are the north and south pole, and would be the first to damn him in all probability were he at present a candidate for their support. Is this conscientious? Far from it; it is democratic and rotten—has been and ever will be the great blot on the escutcheon of our country. The Nebraska iniquity and incidents connected with it, in our public "Bear garden" are enough to make the blood of the North boil, but they don't. The slave driver's whip has not only cracked over our heads heretofore, but the repeated lash has made callous the skin till hardly a smart is felt, be the insult never so great; and we are hardly waking up to the full extent of the great wrong being perpetrated till the deed is done. Who will say slavery is not a curse? who will say there is peace with it? who can place any further reliance on the hypocritical cry of the south that we are persecuted by the North, when all their measures to strengthen and spread the peculiar institution are carried two to one? Who can contain his wrath when drunken representatives of boadmen chuckle in the face of the Lambs of the North, and would with their insults fill the country with duels, if such taunts came from the other side? I am bold enough to say that Union with such men and such principles is not to be desired, and as all the threats of disunion come from them, let them try it on, and let the North boldly meet the issue. Mr. Wade's retort on Mr. Badger was one of the keenest replies in the discussion. The latter, waxing fat and impudent with success, regretted, if the bill did not pass, he should be unable to emigrate to the promised land taking with him his dear old mammy, (a three hundred black horse who unfortunately was instrumental in educating the Badger.) Mr. Wade replied, that he should be very happy to have the honorable Gent. and his dear old mammy reside in the new Territory, and his only regret was that the Hon. Gent. would not be able to sell the old lady when he got her there! The effect of this is said to have been convulsing to the Senate.

The Perham prizes have been drawn, and much fun has been had from the subject and some practical jokes been played. A bar keeper in a South-st. groggery, was the first happy receiver of the great Farm, and the consequence was an unusual number of "smiles" and congratulations flowed in upon him from sympathising friends, and a perfect land office business was transacted in his particular department till a new owner of the "Farm" started up in Wall st. (a broker.) Whether he'll sell at a moderate advance, or discount on part cost remains to be seen, Knox the hatter got a horse. Sydney Morse of the N. Y. Observer pocketed a Piano, if I may use the expression, and Hiram Anderson a gold watch; while that well to do citizen, W. B. Astor, was lucky enough to become the envied possessor of a book descriptive of the renowned Panorama, which another Gent. got. Verily dame fortune is no respecter of persons. Perham, it is said pockets $50000 by the great humbug, and has offered to buy the Crystal Palace. His example has started "another Richmond in the field" and his predecessor's scheme dwindles into insignificance beside this new man's gigantic intentions. Its rather a musty old saying that "the fools are not all dead yet," but the fact gets fresher and fresher every day.

The election for the new board of Managers for the "Palace" took place yesterday, and as there was an opposition ticket in the field much interest was exhibited and a heavy vote was thrown. It is safe to say that the most popular candidates were elected, which is all I know about it. Barnum, Genin and Greeley are a trio among them at least. Yours, VIOLA.

Greece.

ATHENS, Feb. 7.—I have often repeated to you that the Christian population of Turkey were exasperated at the treatment they are subjected to under the Turks, and that they were only waiting for a favorable moment to throw off the yoke. Facts are now gathering rapidly to prove the correctness of my information. Four provinces in Lower Epirus have already risen; they are the districts of Sconticnia, Radovitzi, Zmiverka and Agrapha. More than two thousand men are already under arms; their flag is the Greek cross on a blue ground with the motto of the Labarum, the ancient standard of Byzantium, which translated is, "Conquer by this." They have issued a proclamation, in which they say that, "being no longer able to bear the barbarism that oppresses them—the violation of all law, the pillage of their property, the dishonor of their daughters—they have taken arms to reconquer their liberty, and to continue the work of 1821, which for them has only been interrupted." And they then take an oath to die to the last man rather then ever again submit themselves to the Turks.

The governor of Arta sent against them a detachment commanded by Zieubey, whose ferocious soldiers, in passing through the village of Peta, pillaged and desecrated the church, but they were soon met by the insurgents, who beat them completely, killed a considerable number of them and their chief himself. A second engagement has taken place since, in which the Turks were again beaten; and the news arrived yesterday that that the town of Arta was on the point of being taken, and that Prevesa was in capitulation. The insurrection was rapidly gaining ground, and had extended as far as Souli, that formidable nest of warriors, whom even the terrible Ali Pacha never could subdue. A great number of the inhabitants of the Ionian Islands have also crossed over to Epirus to help their countrymen. The people of free Greece are full of enthusiasm, which the government restrains with the greatest difficulty, and at the expense of its own popularity.—Correspondent of the London Morning Chronicle.

The Nebraska Bill Passed the Senate.

As will be seen by reference to our report from Washington, the Nebraska Bill has passed the Senate, by the decisive vote of 37 to 14! Senator "Doctor of Wisconsin" voting in the Negative!—thus proving the assertion made by us last week, that "Gen. Dodge was the last man in the U. S. Senate to shrink from what he conscientiously believed to be his duty." Unswerved by the powerful influence which surrounds him in this high place, the "old man" has proved true to the sentiment of his constituents, true to the cause of liberty and humanity, and by this one vote, dignified and added lustre to his already illustrious name. We are proud to recognize him as our Senator, and honor the manly independence which has already signalized him in the eyes of the American people.—Potosi Repub. (dem.)

Legislative Matters.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

MADISON, March 15th, '54.

"After some time spent therein" I have nothing of interest to relate of the doings of the Senate. Supposing you get the business introduced and passed, from another source.

In Assembly, bills were introduced as follows:

By Mr. Shantz. A bill to amend chapter 289 of private and local laws of 1853, entitled an act to legalize the organization of the Newark Academy association.

By Mr. Hale, from the committee on claims;

A bill to appropriate $3583 to the Post Master at Madison for postage.

The above were passed, and also the following:

A bill to incorporate the Young Men's Association of Madison.

Memorial to the Post Master General for increase of service on mail route between Beloit and Monroe.

A bill to incorporate the Young Men's Library Association of Watertown.

A bill to establish Rock Lake Seminary.

A bill to provide for the organization of the county of Franklin.

A bill to incorporate the Milwaukee Hydraulic company.

A bill concerning roads in the town of Ottowa.

A bill concerning State taxes.

A bill to regulate the weight and measure of flax seed, timothy seed and potatoes.

A bill to authorize the towns of Lake Mills and Waterloo to aid in the construction of Rail Roads.

A bill to repeal the act to extend the jurisdiction of the Dane County Court. Mr. Orton moved that the preamble to this bill be struck out, (preamble stating the reasons of the repeal) Motion lost. Mr. Orton moved to amend the preamble so as to conform it to the facts, proved by the testimony—that the word "not" was interpolated after the bill was introduced. Agreed to. A motion was then made to postpone the bill for ten days. Lost—Ayes 29 Noes 42. It was then moved that the bill be referred to the committee having in charge the bill to establish a new Judicial Circuit, which motion was also lost, and the bill passed—Ayes 48; Noes 23.

Nothing farther of interest occurred till the order of the day was reached—The bill to provide for the taxation of all the property in the State; and on this question, your correspondent, for the present, has the floor.

The first bad feature in this bill is, that it requires every man, on the demand of the assessor, to give a list of all his property and the value thereof, to be verified by oath or affirmation, and subjecting him to the penalties of perjury for an imperfect list or an under valuation. This feature is faulty in the following particulars.

1st. It is against the general and wholesome policy which does not admit the oath of an interested person, where disinterested testimony can be procured. And this policy is based, not only upon the fact that disinterested testimony is the most reliable, but upon considerations of public policy, to remove temptations to crime, and guard the public morals; and not only so, but to relieve the conscientious from the inquisitorial necessity of testifying against themselves.

2d. It affords opportunity to the dishonest to shirk from their due proportion of taxation, and to cast the burden upon the honest portions of the community. Do you say arraign and punish such for perjury? How will you prove perjury in such a case? Facts are not only stubborn things, but definite things, and a question of fact may be definitely settled. But value is altogether comparative and ideal, and entirely a matter of opinion. It is nothing more nor less than the estimate, which every man for himself, places upon things. There is and can be no such thing as definite and absolute value attached to any thing. The owner of a horse is required to give his value to the assessor, and make oath to it; he puts it at seventy-five dollars. Upon this valuation he is arraigned on a charge of perjury. One witness swears the horse is worth $80; another that he is worth $90, a third that he is worth $100; a fourth that he is worth $110.—The witnesses are all against him, but is the man guilty or not guilty; and if guilty, why is he guilty? Not because he knows the horse to be worth more than $75, for this no one can know but by his own confession. If he is guilty simply because four men have sworn that the horse is worth more than $75, then what shall we say of the man who testified that he was worth but $80? He must be guilty of perjury also, for there are three witnesses against him. So of him who swore that the animal was worth $90, for there are three witness against him, one below and two above him. And so of the other two, and if the prisoner is guilty, the witnesses are all guilty, upon the same principle. Were such testimony adduced in an action to recover the value of a horse, it could not be presumed, prima facia, that either of the witnesses were perjured; but the jury would set down 80—90—100—110, add them together, divide by four and declare the value of the horse accordingly. Under this provision of the tax bill, there can be no possibility of convicting any man of perjury for a false valuation, by any rule which would not make honest men liable to suffer the same penalties for an honest difference of opinion, or a mere error of judgement.

3d. Such a law would deprive every man of the right to get as much for his property as another may be willing to give, irrespective of what he may think it is worth, for his estimate may be too low. No man is likely to get more for his property than he asks, and he cannot ask more than he has sworn it is worth, without subjecting himself to a criminal prosecution, or at least to very unpleasant suspicions.

That provision of the bill which proposes to tax property out of the State, such as railroad stock and the like, owned by citizens of this state, is simply an absurd nullity. Yet it serves to illustrate other principles involved in the bill. It was contended in debate, that the states in which these stocks were located, taxed the property for their own benefit, and that it was wrong for us to tax the same property again. To this, Mr. Donaldson replied that he was not certain that other states did tax the stocks of companies, and instanced certain states which he believed did not tax their railroads. To this, some one, I think Mr. Gary, replied, that whether other states taxed their railroads or not, was none of our business; we could not step beyond our own jurisdiction to mend the policy of other states.—Mr. Orton, upon the same point, remarked that we taxed railroads in our own state, while large mounts of the stock were held in New York, and inquired whether gentlemen would consider it just for the holders of that stock to pay a tax on the road, to this state, and another tax to the State of New York on the shares they owned in the road?

Messrs. Donaldson and Wright, the chief advocates of the measure, seemed a little stumbled at these objections; but still they could see no difference between that, and taxing mortgages and notes drawing interest, and so concluded that both were right. Jurisdiction out of the question, the cases are indeed parallel, and the only mistake these gentlemen made was, in assuming that one wolf was a sheep, and bringing that to prove that another wolf was a sheep also. Undoubtedly, to tax a railroad to the company, and the stock each individual owns in the same road to each individual respectively, and to tax a mortgage and the premises covered by it, or to tax a horse and the note given to secure the payment, are parallel cases. If either is right, they are all right. But the plain truth is that they are all wrong, and it is amazing that grave legislators cannot see it! Every such instance is a case of double taxation, and in many cases it involves triple and quadruple taxation. A sells a horse to B and takes a note; B sells him to C and takes a note; C sells to E and E to D on the same terms.—Here are four notes in existence at the same time, all given for the same horse, and all taxed, and the horse is taxed to boot, when had the horse remained in the hands of the original, A, no thing but the one horse would have been taxed. Does selling a horse and taking a note for him make two horses of one or anything equivalent to it? If it does, then horses may be multiplied without cost, to any extent, till they are plenty as wishes, and beggars can ride. Does the selling of a farm on credit and taking a mortgage for it, make two farms of one? If it does, we have a new and cheap method of providing "land for the landless" and land reformers must cave. For a dollar a piece, we can multiply farms till the oceans are all crowded into a nut shell. If the transaction does not make two farms of one, will our legislative solons tell us what new value is created by the transaction, on which to base a new assessment?

This feature of the bill (taxing evidences of debt) is not new, I am aware. It is the present system, with some new absurdities added to it. The present system is bad, decidedly bad, and this new bill is only calculated to make it worse. Both tax evidences of debt and credits of every kind, not excepting book accounts; and the effect of it is to impose a fine upon every instance of credit. It taxes one man because he holds the property, and it taxes another man for the very evidence that he does not hold it. Legislators may look wise and feel smart over it, and imagine they have caught the capitalist. Miserable delusion! They catch the other man, every time. He who sells on credit, will charge enough more to cover the tax on the credit, and the buyer must pay it in the end, in addition to the tax on the property bought. The capitalist will have enough more for the use of his capital, to cover the tax, or he will invest it in some other way, and the borrower must pay the double tax or do without the capital he needs. When will this wretched policy of hen-pecking capital, as if it were the greatest bane of society, be abandoned?

The bill has been debated all this P. M. without any material amendment or getting through the committee of the whole. S.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—L. S. VAN ORDEN writes from Neosho, Dodge Co., to the Burr Oak, the following account of a fatal accident:

Neosho, Wis., March 1, 1854.

DEAR SIR:—A fatal accident occurred yesterday at the house of John G. Richardson, about 3 miles below Neosho, on the plank road. The particulars as near as can be ascertained, are as follows:—Mrs. Joshua Thomas, a near neighbor of Mr. Richardson, sent her son, about six years of age, to borrow a handsaw from Mr. Richardson. Mr. R. not being at home, Mrs. R. sent her son (a lad of about thirteen years of age) up stairs to get the saw for him; the boy Thomas followed him up, and while Mr. R.'s boy was looking for the saw under the bed in another part of the chamber, it is supposed the boy Thomas took hold of a loaded gun which was lying on the bed, from which the clothing had been removed, and drew it towards him and the hammer caught in the bed cord, the gun discharged and the contents passed into his body just below the breast bone, and passed out thro' his left shoulder, driving a portion of the body and blood with it, and lodged against a stone chimney, which was just behind, killing him instantly.

A coroner's jury was called, Edwin Goodal, Esq., acting as coroner, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.

Yours, truly, L. S. VAN ORDEN.

A Vermillion Edict.

The Washington Union, President Pierce's organ, thus lays down the law in relation to the Nebraska bill:

If a Democratic member of Congress is led by his judgment and his conscience to vote for the bill, as we hope all Democrats will be led to do, and he returns to his constituents to encounter the clamor and opposition of Whigs and Abolitionists, together with disaffected men of his own party, no sensible man—at least no man who understands and appreciates the character of the Executive—will believe that the President will allow such factious men to wield public patronage to overthrow any man at home who has given to the principles of the bill a cordial and conscientious support.

Office-holders and participants in government patronage will please take notice. If any of them venture to rebuke representatives who vote for the Nebraska Bill, off go their heads immediately. A Vermillion Edict! Let it be forwarded at the rate of 3000 le per day!

And this is said to be a free country!

The Wisconsin Land Grant.

There is a bill now before the House of Representatives proposing to make an extensive grant of the public lands to the State of Wisconsin, to aid in the construction of a certain railroad. Now, we hold the principle of these grants to be exceedingly doubtful in any case. Let the Homestead bill be passed and actual settlers take possession of the lands, and the need of the such aid will exist no longer, because the people of the State will be able to build their own roads. But this bill is liable to other objections of a still more immediate and conclusive nature. It does not merely give the land to the State to help such railroad enterprises as the people may judge most worthy of assistance, but it prescribes the points where the road shall run, locates it, and in fact puts the whole into the hands of a company of speculators of very doubtful antecedents, and thus enables them to break down railroads already set on foot and in a great measure completed by the people themselves.

In laying down the places through which this road must run, the bill entirely excludes the Lake shore and towns from the benefit of the grant. This alone is something which can hardly be justified on the part of Congress. The Lake shore towns of Kenosha, Racine, Milwaukee, Sheboygan, and Manitowoc, are all engaged to a greater or less extent in the construction of railroads. From Milwaukee, several roads have made considerable advances into the country, particularly the Milwaukee and Mississippi Road, which was the pioneer road of the State, and is now running to within a few miles of Madison, the Capital, a distance of one hundred miles. This road has been built entirely by private enterprise, and is owned and controlled by the people of the State. So deep has been the interest of the inhabitants along its route, and so much confidence has been reposed in the soundness of its management, that large numbers of the farmers have mortgaged their farms to raise the money to carry it forward. The contemplated grant, on the part of Government provides for the building of a road side by side, with this one for a considerable distance. Can this be right? Shall Congress step in with its strong arm to cripple and break down private enterprise? The same is true of the Milwaukee and La Crosse Road, another undertaking to advance which the citizens have subscribed and paid in a large sum.

But why keep away from the Lake ports in continuing the great southern route from Chicago to Lake Superior? Certainly that route is far more direct along the shore of Lake Michigan, from Chicago, at any rate as far north as Milwaukee, and perhaps to Sheboygan, before it bears westward toward Lake Superior. In a governmental point of view this route would be far better, since beside its greater directness, it would permit the road to be reached by shipping at half a dozen or more ports instead of a single one.—But aside from this consideration, we have a strong sympathy for the Lake shore towns of Wisconsin. They have been the great gateways through which the five hundred thousand inhabitants of that State have passed. They were the first to build common highways, then plank roads, and lastly with a noble enterprise, to take in hand the more formidable work of building railroads. It is to these efforts on the part of the lake Cities, that much of the importance and power of the State is to be attributed, and we confess that we should be very sorry to see such a dispositon of these lands as would be calculated to break down their hard earned prosperity. If land must be given let it be directly to the State, and let the distribution be made by the Legislature, which certainly should be the best judge, both as to where and how such aid ought to be applied.

The Rescue of Glover.

The Madison Journal thus speaks of this affair:

Such has been the termination of the first attempt at Wisconsin, to enforce the odious Fugitive slave law. While every thinking man must dislike to see the laws of the land trampled upon, and the mob triumphant, he will feel a stronger emotion, for which dislike is altogether too tame, a word, that our law givers have passed enactments so inherently unjust that no good man can or will obey them. At this time, particularly the public mind is peculiarly inflamable. The Senate of the United States, which should be the most dignified, the most noble, the most honorable body upon earth, have just violated public faith, trampled upon solemn covenants, disregarded the voice of justice, humanity and civilization; and when such a body is guilty of such acts, can it be expected that an excited populace will be over nice in disregarding their own feelings for the sake of upholding an opprobrious and cruel law? All over this broad State, into every peaceful village, and quiet homestead, the press will carry the intelligence of this outrage upon humanity, of this barbaric assault upon a man guilty of no offence, except, in the language of an ancient hero, which has often been admited, that of "deeming himself worthy of liberty." And wherever this intelligence goes, the popular heart will beat high with indignation against the men who have legalized this great wrong, and made kidnapping a legitimate business. The popular heart, too, though the act, may have been lawless, will approve and exult over the discomfiture of the man-hunter. Let them remember that this is but a far-off ramification of that system of gigantic wrongs against which their representatives in our State Senate refuse to lend the influence of their votes in excluding from territory now free.

The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention and the Nebraska Bill.

Harrisburgh, March 9, 1854.

The telegraphic despatch relative to the action of the Democratic Convention needs a slight correction, viz.:—A resolution was offered before the Committee on Resolutions, consisting of thirty-three members, in favor of the principles of the Nebraska bill, combined with another directly endorsing the bill itself. Both were voted down by a majority of one without debate. Mr. Harrison Wright, of Luzerne, attempted to offer resolutions of the like nature in Convention, but was "cho ked off," as the telegraphic correspondent expresses it, by an almost unanimous expression of opition by the Convention.

THE COAL FIELDS OF THE UNITED STATES.—The great Appalachian coal field, extending from New York to Alabama, covers nearly 100,000 square miles; the Indiana field, 55,000. Add to these fields Michigan, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Missouri, Iowa, and Virginia, and we shall have a surface more than twenty-seven times as large as Massachusetts. If we suppose the average thickness of the beds over this surface to be only 25 feet, then the whole amount of coal in solid measure, in this country, would be not far from 1,700 cubic miles. Estimating the yearly consumption of coal in this country to be 7,000,000 tons, this immense body of fuel would keep the hearths bright and the furnaces a-glow for more than a million of years.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S LECTURE.—Young's Hall was packed full again last night with attentive listeners to Mr. Taylor's lecture on Japan, and although he stated that his journeyings in that country did not extend more than 150 yards from the beach, yet it was evident that he had made the best possible use of his opportunity of seeing the people, and studying their customs face to face, and besides had learned much of them by other means.

The Association deserve well of our citizens for the instruction and entertainment which they have provided in these lectures; and we should do injustice to ourselves if we did not say one word of commendation of the indefatigable lecture committee, Messrs. BRIGHAM and GRISWOLD, whose labors have been very arduous, they having neglected nothing, but given to every feature of the arrangements prompt and close attention throughout.

GERMAN MEETING IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, March 17th.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of Germans took place last night at North Market Hall. Speeches were made and Resolutions adopted, strongly condemning the course of Senator Douglass in regard to Nebraska.

After the meeting adjourned, a procession was formed which marched through the principal streets, carrying a large transparency, on which was painted a portrait of Douglas suspended by a rope and underneath it the words—"The Benedict Arnold of 1854." They then proceeded to the public square, where he was burned in effigy.

Railroad Accident.

Frightful Descent down an Embankment—Large number of Persons Injured, &c.

From the Baltimore American, 7th.

We published yesterday a brief dispatch announcing that a serious accident had occurred on the previous evening, on the Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad, resulting in the serious injury of a number of passengers.

The train, consisting of a baggage car and three passenger cars, with about eighty passengers, left York at 2½ o'clock on Monday afternoon, in the charge of Capt. Ratcliff, one of the most careful officers on the road, and all anticipated a pleasant and agreeable journey. They had scarcely got outside of York, however, (the scene of the accident being but two miles from the limits of the borough,) when, in turning a curve, the whole train, with the exception of the locomotive and tender, flew from the track, and was precipitated down an embankment about 25 feet high. The burden car retained its position on the side of the embankment just clear of the track, on its side, but almost on end, lying lengthwise down the embankment. The passenger car now lies in the meadow, about fifty feet from the track, on its side. The second car came to a stand about 60 feet from the track, on its side also, and the third remained on the side of the embankment, almost on end, the rear just clearing the track.

The first car was almost exclusively occupied by men, and although in the course of its descent it rolled over three times, we believe that they all escaped with nothing more than bruises and cuts, except those who were injured by the stoves, and burnt by the hot coals that escaped from them.

The second passenger car also made three rapid revolutions in its descent down the embankment, which gave it an impetus that threw it out in the meadow, coming to a stand full sixty feet from the track, on its side, the trucks of all three cars remaining in their places.

The scene in the interior of these cars is represented as having been of the most awful and appalling character, so much so that each passenger expected to find his neighbor seriously if not mortally wounded. Men, women and children were thrown together, alternately from floor to ceiling, as the cars turned over. The stoves of course broke from their places and were dashed about the cars, whilst the hot coals were scattered among the passengers, inflicting bad burns on some, and burning the clothes of others. Several ladies had their dresses entirely burnt off, and would doubtless have been seriously burnt but for the prompt assistance rendered them by the gentlemen. The large stone spittoons were also formidable weapons which were brought to bear on the persons of the passengers, while a number of the seats broke from their places, and added still more to the catastrophe. The hot coals set fire to the cushions of the cars, filling them with smoke, and the windows being closed with iron railings, while the doors were so jammed that they could not be opened—this also, after the cars ceased to move, for a few moments, added to the fears of the passengers.

In both these cars there was scarcely a passenger who escaped without injury, and when the revolutions ceased, the blood was flowing freely from cut heads and bruised noses. The interior of the cars to-day are well marked with blood, and afford some idea of the fearful character of the accident. A passenger who fortunately escaped with but a few slight burns, but was thrown about among his bleeding fellow passengers, exhibits a coat to-day clotted with blood, not one drop of which was his own.

SAFES.—CODE MODE.—THE SALAMANDER SAFE Manufacturers seem to be alarmed at the growing popularity of LILLIE'S IMPREGNABLE SAFE AND BANK LOCK; and while the more discreet among them wisely remain silent, others, perhaps from fear of being entirely annihilated, appear in some obscure papers or circular boasting of the superior ity of their Safes over all others. It is not long since that the proprietors of the Fire-King Safe came out with a flaming article in the Albany Transcript on the merits of their Safe, and took particular pains to misrepresent the maker of Lillie's Safe. Subsequently Holmes and Barber issued a circular to the public, largely headed professing to give a faithful account of the late fire-proof test of Safes under the direction of the Crystal Palace Committee.

We have no disposition to court notoriety or provoke a controversy with those gentlemen, as we have not been able, with our increasing facilities, to keep up with the orders that are constantly flowing in upon us. And while it may appear cruel in us to notice so feeble a competition as Davidson's Fire-King Safe, it would be equally ridiculous for us to attempt a refutation of the silly imputations that appear in Holmes & Butler's handbill about Lillie's Safe.—Suffice it, however, should it put right on this subject as they are interested to know who makes the best Safe.—As to the test, it will be remembered that all the Safe manufacturers, except Silver and Fitzgerald, [now claimed to be Holmes & Butler,] and our safes failed to burn. The key was an improper one for an honest test, as no safe was ever accidentally exposed to a coke or coal fire. Silver and Fitzgerald's was a large, impracticable, experimental safe, the lower half of which was entirely filled with clay and sand, the steam from which coming in contact with the cold iron presented its condensation, thereby rendering that in a complete protector against heat, a condition which could not have taken place in a wood fire. Lillie's Safe is of ordinary size with dry filling, the heat becoming more intense next to the iron. We will not here enter into a committee of unfairness, although they overruled us in every instance where we differed with Messrs. Silver & Fitzgerald about the management of the fire, and insisted on a much longer time than propriety or the views of practical men seemed to dictate. Notwithstanding which much of a book taken from between the doors of Lillie's safe, after the fire, was sufficiently legible to be read with ease.

We claim to make the best fire and burglar-proof Safe in Christendom, and if John B. Davidson with his Fire King, or Holmes and Butler with their Reservoir Phœnix, will come to a fire proof test with us, we are ready for them. Time, place and trial, to be agreed upon by a disinterested committee who may select Safes from those now in use of a similar thickness of filling, or each party may make a safe expressly for the occasion, the fire to be made of wood. Auto burglary qualities we believe nobody, with the exception of Holmes & Butler, pretend to compete with us. With those gentlemen we submit a test. They may take their wrought-iron, steel and chilled cast-iron Safe, about which they made so much noise at the Crystal Palace Exhibition. We will take one from our store at No. 139 Pearl st., New York. Powder, drills, chisels, sledges, or any other instrument may be used in the test. If we do not open their Safe in less time than they do ours, we will forfeit the value of both Safes to the suffering people of New York City. The test to take place in Hanover-square, New York. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—New York Dutchman, Jan 14th.

"EXCELSIOR!"

MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER, is the STANDARD in this sphere—the Leading Weekly Agricultural, Literary and Family Newspaper. This assertion is fully sustained by its high reputation, great popularity, and extensive circulation. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical, Scientific, Educational, Literary and News Matter, interspersed with numerous Engravings, than any other journal in the Union—rendering it unequalled in Variety and Usefulness of Contents. With a corps of six able Editors, and every facility for publishing in the best style, the RURAL excels in both Contents and Appearance. Independent and out-spoken, it faithfully advocates the Best Interests of the Rural Population—and now ranks as

The Best Paper of its Class.

The extraordinary success of the RURAL—the names of over Nineteen Thousand Subscribers having been entered upon its books during the past two months!—proves that it is adapted to the TASTE of the people, and fully demonstrates its great value and superiority. In judging of it, comparatively, remember that the RURAL is not a monthly of only 12 issues yearly, but a Large and Beautiful Weekly of 52 Two Sheet Numbers!

Each number of the Rural New Yorker comprises Eight Double Quarto Pages [forty columns.] A Title Page, Index, &c., given at the close of each year and volume. The Fifth Volume commenced January 7, from which date numbers can be furnished—or subscriptions can begin at any time.

TERMS—$2 a year;—$1 for six months—in advance. Great reduction and liberal premiums to agents and clubs. Specimen numbers sent free; but give us your address. Subscription money, properly enclosed, at our risk, if addressed to D. D. T. MOORE, Rochester, N. Y.

Credentials of the Rural New-Yorker.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER commences a new year with a new and beautiful dress, and is enriched in its matter. It is full of variety, original and select. No paper on our list of exchanges comes so near our ideas of perfection, for a sterling family paper, as the RURAL. It has always maintained a high moral standard.—N. Y. Observer.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER has become a giant among its kind. With a subscription verging fast to 30,000, and with a candor on who knows how to polish it with every fresh issue, and accomplish it with the best talent of the age,—it is not surprising that it is now the leading agricultural paper of the country.—Christian Advocate

MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER has, from its start, taken high rank, and rapidly increased in popular favor, and now stands without an equal in its sphere. High-toned, practical and scientific, it admits nothing stale, vulgar, or uninstructive. As an Agricultural, Literary and Family Newspaper combined, we know not its superior.—Daily Union.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER is one of the very best Agricultural and Family Newspapers in the world. Its mechanical execution, its illustrations, and the arrangement of its contents, are complete. The character of its editorials, communications, &c., is of the highest order.—Louisville Journal.

Life, Fire & Marine Insurance.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

CAPITAL - - - - $400,000.

THE TIME HAS GONE BY WHEN THE ADVANTAGES of Life Insurance need an argument. It is already a settled conviction among the least informed that a man without much property, who has others dependant upon him, or a man engaged in any hazardous business, or a man whose property is encumbered so as to require forced sale in case of his death, has no more imperative duty resting upon him than that requiring him to have his LIFE INSURED. Think of those innocent objects of our solicitude, struggling alone with the cold charity of a merciless world! when a few dollars saved by cutting off needless expenses would give them a competence.

QUEEN'S PATENT

PORTABLE FORGE AND BELLOWS.

THIS FORGE can be set where most convenient for light work, and the smoke conducted to the Chimney by a Pipe.

There are six sizes of Blacksmiths, Coppersmiths, &c. Forges, and five sizes of Jewelers, Dentists and Chemists.

It is compact—the Tuyer Iron is of a superior construction—the Coal can in the quickest manner—the wind escapes from the hot-air chamber through several holes in the Tuyer cap, which being under the fire, prevents the Tuyer from getting filled up with cinders and ashes, as it will where there is but one opening. For out-door work and for safety in-doors, this Forge has great advantages over others, having two Slides by which the Forge can be closely shut up, and for safety and many purposes in-doors, (particularly for Jewelers, Dentists and for chemical operations,) all the fumes from charcoal and acids being conducted through the smoke-pipe, or when required they are entirely out of the way. It is also so constructed that fire or water cannot injure the Bellows, which is in the cylinder under the fire bed.

It is the best Forge for Contractors on Railroads, Public Works, (for making repairs on the same,) and for emigration to new countries, over offered to the public, and are successfully used by most of the Steamers and also by the U. S. Army and Navy.

THE
BUFFALO EAGLE IRON WORKS CO.
Propose to pay Particular attention to Architectural Iron Work.
WE are prepared to Manufacture IRON FRONTS for Stores and Public Buildings, with the Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters.
These Shutters are the same that are now so generally used in New York, and may be put in any Window. Small out lights and Iron guard before erection of the building may be used without in the least affecting the style of Architecture. They make the only perfect Fire Proof Shutter, and do not appear to the eye to be out of the way.
When desired we will furnish the Plan for Store Fronts, (with or without the Patent Shutter,) with estimate for the Cost of the work finished ready for delivery. To our Western friends we think this branch of trade will be desirable, for they thus are enabled to know without experiment what the Front is to be, and what it is to cost.
When the Patent Shutters are used we will furnish a man to superintend the erection of the Iron Front and the setting of the Shutter.
